The Radicals Enraged About the Removal of McDowell.

Nothing New Concerning the New York Nominee.

THE PRESIDENT VISITED

Tax Matters and Texas Matters.

A Very Gloomy Radical Caucus.

GRANT NO GO.

Sixty Treasury Clerks Receive their Walking Papers.

Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

WASHINGTON, July 1. — McDowell's Removal.

The removal of Gen. McDowell from command in Mississippi is the talk of the town to-night. The radicals are very bitter about it and talk about another element. The Democratic delegates are of course decidedly pleased. Friends of the President think it will do no harm at New York. In conversation with a high military official Mr. Johnson expressed himself very warmly about the late outrages of McDowell.

A PLACID VISIT.

Ex-Governors Akin and Ferry, of South Carolina, called at the White House this afternoon, and had a long interview with the President. Both are warm personal friends of His Excellency. The latter was appointed provisional Governor of South Carolina in 1865. They are likely to be Johnson men at New York. They represent with Carolina in as bad condition under Candy's rule.

THE PRESIDENCY.

Presidential speculation is unchanged. Delegates continue to arrive, but many have gone over to New York, which is then Washington in the shade. It is impossible to arrive at any satisfactory guess as to the administration. Gwinning only knows. The Democracy are very part as far as has been revealed here, only realize the importance of union. The expected split is all in the radical eye. I am inclined to think Pendleton has lost a little ground, owing to his excessive prominence. But no one can be said to be ahead, and I continue to think that new combinations will develop a good deal of Andy Johnson strength. Hancock, who has most personal friends next to Pendleton, may notice every one he meets. He is modest and retiring, however, and personally known to few. The Frank Blair nomination does not improve.

OUR TAXES.

The Finance Committee expect a sort of hot-potch of a tax bill. It will not be satisfactory. Provisions are coming in from dealers in New York and the rest against tax on sales. The radicals will be obnoxious. There will be great efforts, however, to modify the bill. The radicals agreed to day to take the funding bill as soon as the tax bill is disposed of.

TEXAS.

The Reconstruction Committee will report favorably upon Old Thad Stevens's bill dividing Texas into three States. It meets with a good deal of opposition even among radicals.

REJECTED.

The Senate this afternoon rejected the nomination of Andrew J. Moulder for Senator of California. He is a decided conservative, and a partner of J. W. Simon, agent of the New York Associated Press.

NOT TO BE CONFIRMED.

The Senate Revenue Committee will report against the confirmation of Col. Lester Smith.

ADJOURNED.

There is no conclusion yet arrived at about adjournment. The radicals do not agree among themselves. The bill, including old Thad Stevens, favor adjourning the summer. If Johnson should be nominated at New York, they will do one more. They are more afraid of him than any one else.

EX-EXECUTIVE.

Sixty clerks, male and female, were discharged from the Treasury Department to-day. No more work. No more greenbacks. The exodus creates great consternation among the bread-and-butter people.

VERY DOLFUL.

The radical cause to-day was not cheerful. The radicals say that Grant is a poor stick and it is impossible to devise a way to make him go. The business was chiefly technical.

TENNESSEE.
